

ESNO Congress 21 February 2019

Brussels

Program

08 :00 – 09:00 REGISTRATION

"INTEGRATION OF PRIMARY AND SECONDARY CARE: ROLE OF THE NURSE SPECIALIST AND IMPACT ON QUALITY OF CARE"
09:00 – 09:30	Opening remarks DG Sante – what is the vision across the EU?	Adriano <name>
	Setting the scene: Why the shift from a hospital to home care setting?	Moderator Bert Vrijhoef
09 :30 – 10 :30	Introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The drivers behind the move from the hospital setting to the community - How might this impact the role of the specialist nurse and what challenges might this bring both from an individual training perspective but also the change in responsibility and infrastructures? - Leading expert give a 15 min presentation on : " why moving is necessary, eg to ensure sustainability of advanced and complex health care and to provide some evidence « . - speakers are invited: what trends they are seeing in their specialist field ? 	- - - Public
10:30 11:00	Break / Networking
11:00 – 12:00	Experiences of Care Transition trends: e.g. Oncology – Urology – Anesthesia – Diabetes – Dialysis ... Each 15 minutes including 5 min Q&A Format for presenters in three pointers for speakers: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) What gets integrated for whom? 2) How does integration -as described under 1- affects the role of the specialist nurse? 3) 3. What more is needed for the specialist nurse to add value? 	<name> <name> <name> <name>
15 MIN	Nurses 1 – Example of the impact of IT / Internet and the interface between primary and secondary care	Maria Teresa Parisotto
15 MIN	Nurses 2 – Example of how Pain management is being adopted in primary care	Adriano Friganovic
15 MIN	Nurses 3 – Example how the specialist nurses role is expanding to accommodate this transition– e.g. greater prescribing responsibilities	<name>
15 MIN	Nurses 4 – Example of a specialist nurse practice in community care on total well-being of the patients' needs and liaison with family and interdisciplinary health care teams.	<name>
12 :00 – 12 :30	Debate
12 :30 – 13 :30	Lunch and Network

Afternoon

What might the Specialist's Nurse role look like in 5 years and what will be required to achieve this?

13:30 – 15:00	Subtheme 2: Future Challenges Introduction on 'Invest in the Healthcare Workforce related to the Specialist Nurse, Nursing at the advanced level' . Speakers are invited from leading global and European health and nursing organisations	Moderator, Liesbeth Borgermans
13:30 – 13:40	Introduction, moderator B
13:40 – 13:55	Future vision and activities: Education – Accreditation - Recognition	Alessandro Stievano
13:55– 14:10	Reorganization of nurse in community: Position and Autonomy and 'One-Health'	<name>
14:10– 14:25	Recognition of the specialist nurse: Title Specialist Nurses – and political challenges	<name>
14:25 – 15:00	Panel Debate include aspects of input public European perspective, support for and requirements on a political level: Panel discussion with representative of physician, nurses, manager and patient: Facilities and difficulties of ensuring treatment at home building a bridge between hospital and primary care Participants by leading European and global organisations:	<name> <name> <name> <name>
15:00 – 15:30	Break out groups – separate consultation Moderators Break in to Groups to discuss certain topics - What are the key issues moving forward and what needs to be done
15:30 – 16:00	Feedback from groups 5 minutes each Debate Moderators A and B (tbc) Next steps (challenge to all members to reflect and give input in next ESNO congress)	Moderators: Ber Vrijhoef Liesbeth Borgermans
16:00 – 16:30	Conclusion and Closing remarks
16:00 – 16:15	Officer DG Sante	<name>
16:15 – 16:30	President ESNO	Adriano Friganovic

REGISTER HERE

CONGRESS 21-02-2019

"Integration of Primary and Secondary care:
role of the nurse specialist and impact on quality of care"

Brussels

ESNO.ORG/CONGRESS

#ESNO2019